

Tell It Wherever You Go

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1907

Willilam Edie Marks

1. If Christ the Re-deem-er has par-doned your sin, Tell it wher-ev-er you
2. If now you are hap-py with Christ as your guide, Tell it wher-ev-er you
3. When trou-bles as-sail, do you trust in Him still? Tell it wher-ev-er you
4. If you are an heir to a man-sion on high, Tell it wher-ev-er you go; If in-to your dark-ness His light has shown in, Tell it wher-ev-er you go; If He is your friend, and with Him you a-bide, Tell it wher-ev-er you go; When sor-rows o'er-whelm, do you sink in His will? Tell it wher-ev-er you go; Un-til you find rest in that home in the sky, Tell it wher-ev-er you

Refrain

go.
go. Tell it, tell it, Tell it wher-ev-er you go; If
go. Tell it that o-thers a-round you may know,
go.

you would win o-thers from sin and from woe, Tell it wher-ev-er you go.
