

That Fair Land

Vester Smith, 1896

C. M. Barnes

♩=95

1. There's a land far a - way where the long sum - mer day, Ev - er
2. In that land of the blest with its glo - ries con - fessed, We shall
3. Oh! that land fair and bright, 'tis a home of de - light, 'Tis a clothed with a splen - dor so fair, 'Tis a man - sion of rest for the rest with our Sav - ior a - bove; In that bright sun - ny clime as the home where we'll rest ev - er - more; With a robe and a crown in that good and the blest, And we'll meet all the loved o - ver there. stars we shall shine, Crowned with glo - ry like an - gels of love. O-ver there, o - ver home of re - nown We shall sing with the loved gone be - fore. O-ver there, o-ver there, We shall there, We shall meet with the pure and the fair; O-ver there, o - ver meet by and by, We shall meet with the pure and the fair; O-ver there, o-ver there, We shall meet, we shall there, We shall meet in that home o - ver there. meet by and by.

Refrain  