

There Is Shelter at the Cross

Katharine Atherton Grimes, 1912

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=92

1. Are you worn with griefs and fears, Have you wast - ed ma - ny years? There is
2. Do you long for love and peace, From the tempt - er seek re - lease? There is
3. Tho' by deeds of sin de - filed, You are still the Sav - ior's child, There is shel - ter at the cross for you. Have you wan - dered far a - stray, In the shel - ter at the cross for you. Do you fear the snares of sin, Do you shel - ter at the cross for you. Tho' by doubt and fear op - pressed, In its dark - ness lost your way? There is shel - ter at the cross for you. bear its marks with - in? There is shel - ter at the cross for you. There is sha - dow there is rest— There is shel - ter at the cross for you. There is shel - ter at the cross for you, There is shel - ter at the cross for you; By a shel - ter at the cross for you, There is shel - ter at the cross for you:

Refrain

world of sin de - nied, Je - sus suf - fered there and died; There is shel - ter at the cross for you.

