

There Is a Lamp Whose Steady Light

Henry John Betts, 1864

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1902

♩=100

1. There is a lamp whose stea - dy light Can guide the travel - er in the night; 'Tis
2. There is a chart whose trac - ings show The on - ward course where tem - pests blow; 'Tis
3. There is a tree whose leaves im - part Health to the bur - dened, con - trite heart; 'Tis God's own Word; its beam - ing ray Can turn a mid - night in - to day.

God's own Word; there, there is found Di - rect - ion for the home - ward bound.
God's own Word; it cures of sin, And makes the guilt - y con - science clean.

Refrain

Give me this lamp to light my road, This store - house Give me this lamp to light my road; Oh, give me this lamp to light my road; This store-house for my for my dai - ly food; Give me this chart for life's rough sea, These dai - ly food, This store-house for my dai - ly food;

heal - ing leaves, this heal - ing tree.