

There's a Place in God's Planning for You

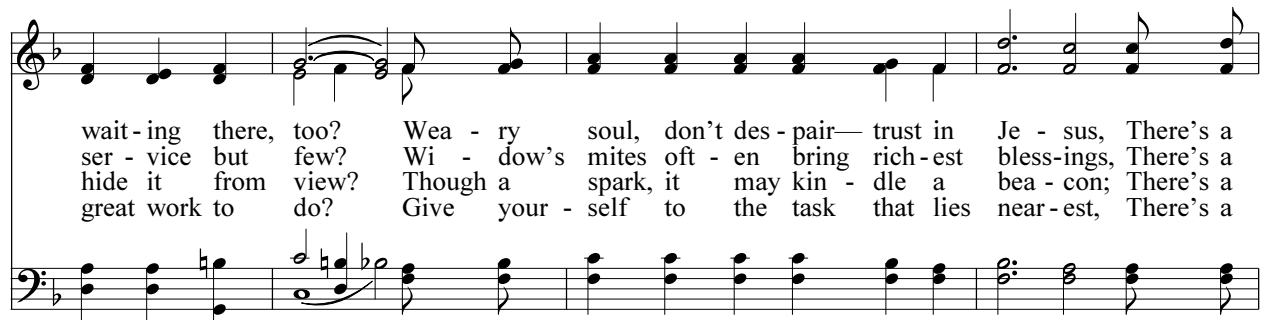

Albert A. Rand, 1917

Haldor Lillenas

♩=135

1. Is your way thorn be - set and un - cer - tain? Is dis - cour - age - ment
2. Does the best you can do seem un - wor - thy? Are your chanc - es for 3. Does your light seem so flick - ering and fee - ble? That you're tempt - ed to 4. Why then waste pre - cious mo - ments in seek - ing For some dis - tant or wait - ing there, too? Wea - ry soul, don't des - pair— trust in Je - sus, There's a ser - vice but few? Wi - dow's mites oft - en bring rich - est bless - ings, There's a hide it from view? Though a spark, it may kin - dle a bea - con; There's a great work to do? Give your - self to the task that lies near - est, There's a place in God's plan - ning for you, for you. place in God's plan - ning for you, for you. There's a place in God's plan - ning for place in God's plan - ning for you, for you.

Refrain

place in God's plan - ning for you, for you.

you, And a work that none o - ther can do; Do your best, take your share of the
for you can do, bless - ing: There's a place in God's plan - ning for you.

for you.