

Thy Brother Calls to Thee

Joseph Flintoft Berry, 1896

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=110

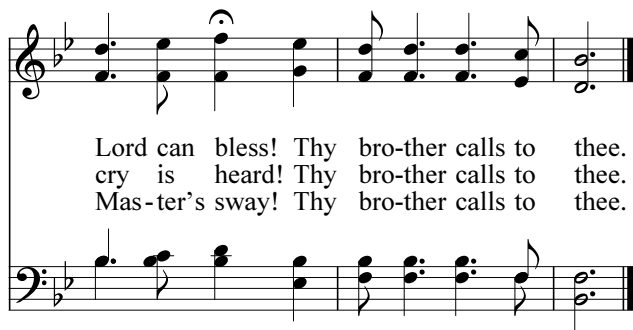

1. A - wake, O Christ - ian, from thy sleep, And heed thy bro - ther's call! He
2. 'Mid deep - est gloom and dark - est night He lifts his help - less hands; Can
3. O save the lost, the sin - ner turn! To blind men send the light! O cries to thee a - cross the deep, Where dark - est sha-dows falls. From sin and guilt and aught but Je - sus give him light Or break his cru-el bands? Then send, O send the let thy soul with ar - dor burn To lead them to the right; Then ush - er in that wretch - ed - ness He knows not where to flee; Go tell him how the Mas - ter's Word A - cross the wide blue sea, Where Ma - ce - don - ia's glo - rious day, The king - dom yet to be, When all shall own the Lord can bless! Thy bro-ther calls to thee.

cry is heard! Thy bro-ther calls to thee.
Mas-ter's sway! Thy bro-ther calls to thee.