

To Me, Dear Savior

Herbert Howard Booth, 1889

Herbert Howard Booth

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. To me, dear Sav - ior, yes, to me, Speak out Thy ut - most will; What
 2. To me, dear Sav - ior, yes, to me, Thy gra - cious par - don show, That
 3. To me, dear Sav - ior, yes, to me, The flood gates o - pen wide, That
 4. To me, dear Sav - ior, yes, to me, To me, the least of all, With
 5. To me, dear Sav - ior, yes, to me, Thy sav - ing power be giv'n; Then

Thy great love doth bid me do, I sure - ly can ful - fill; What not one sin I've ev - er sinned May un - for - giv - en go; That ev - en I may stoop and wash With - in the crim - son tide; That all my con - scious - ness of guilt, Thou hast for me a call; With shall I know why I have lived, And what on earth is heav'n; Then

Thy great love doth bid me do, I sure - ly can ful - fill; What
 not one sin I've ev - er sinned May un - for - giv - en go; That
 ev - en I may stoop and wash With - in the crim - son tide; That all my con - scious - ness of guilt, Thou hast for me a call; With shall I know why I have lived, And what on earth is heav'n; Then

$\text{♩} = 105$
Refrain

Thy great love doth bid me do, I sure - ly can ful - fill.
 not one sin I've ev - er sinned May un - for - giv - en go. ev - en I may stoop and wash With - in the crim - son tide. There is not in my all my con - scious - ness of guilt, Thou hast for me a call.
 shall I know why I have lived, And what on earth is heav'n.

heart left one trea-sure, dear Lord, That I can-not yield glad-ly to Thee; On-ly let, in Thy mer-cy, Thy plead-ings be heard; They shall glad-ly be ans-wered by me, They shall glad-ly be ans-wered by me.