

To Save a Poor Sinner Like Me

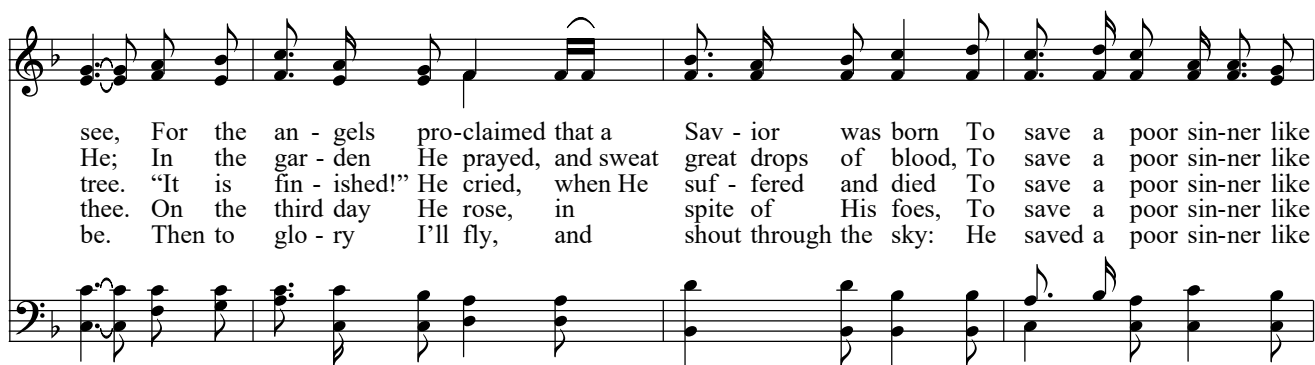

John Lawley (1859–1922) et al.

Anonymous

$\text{♩} = 95$

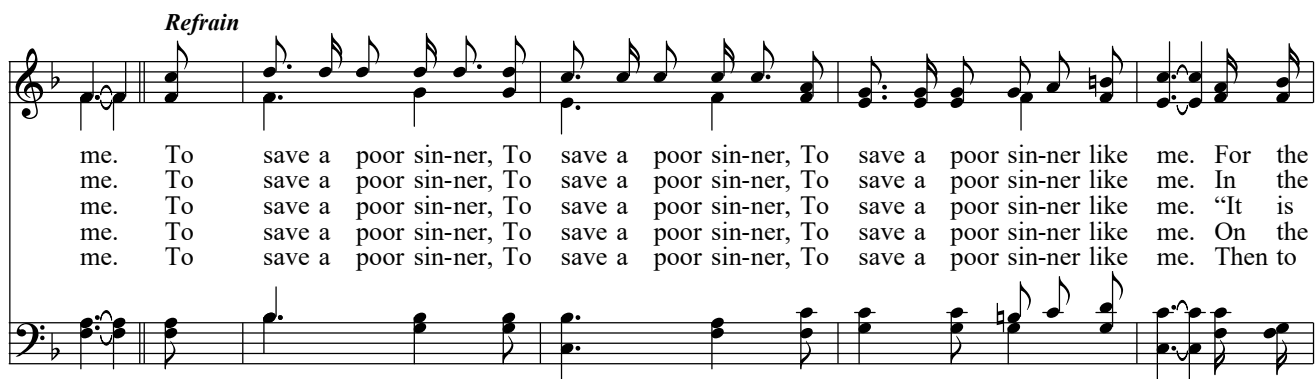

1. When Je - sus was born in the man - ger The shep - herds came thi - ther to
2. He was wound - ed for m - y trans - gress - ions, Ac - quaint - ed with sor - row was
3. He was brought to Pi - late for judg - ment, He was sentenced to hang on a 4. But death and the grave could not hold Him, He burst them a - sun - der for 5. I'm fight - ing my pass - age to Heav - en, O'er death I shall con - quer - or see, For the an - gels pro - claimed that a Sav - ior was born To save a poor sin - ner like He; In the gar - den He prayed, and sweat great drops of blood, To save a poor sin - ner like tree. "It is fin - ished!" He cried, when He suf - fered and died To save a poor sin - ner like thee. On the third day He rose, in spite of His foes, To save a poor sin - ner like be. Then to glo - ry I'll fly, and shout through the sky: He saved a poor sin - ner like me. To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner like me. For the me. To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner like me. In the me. To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner like me. "It is me. To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner like me. On the me. To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner, To save a poor sin - ner like me. Then to an - gels pro - claimed that a Sav - ior was born To save a poor sin - ner like me.

Refrain

gar - den He prayed, and sweat great drops of blood, To save a poor sin - ner like me. fin - ished!" He cried, when He suf - fered and died To save a poor sin - ner like me.
third day He rose, in spite of His foes, To save a poor sin - ner like me.
glo - ry I'll fly, and shout through the sky: He saved a poor sin - ner like me.