

We All Can Do Good

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1881

John Robson Sweney

♩=90

1. Our lives, we are told, are but fleet-ing at best, Like ros-es they fade and de-cay; Then
2. A look or a smile, that in kind-ness we give, May com-fort a de-so-late heart; May
3. How ma-ny a-round us are stran-gers to God, How ma-ny poor child-ren we see; If
4. We all can do good, and we all can be-stow Some gift for the sake of the Lord; If

Refrain

let us do good while the pre-sent is ours, Be use-ful as long as we stay.
sweet-en a life that is lone-ly and sad, And hope to the wear-y im-part.
such we could bring to the foot of the cross, How grate-ful and glad we should be. Do on-ly a cup of cold wa-ter we give, Our souls will not lose their re-ward.

good un-to o-thers, do good while we can, Our mo-ments how quick-ly they fly; Re-

- mem-ber the pro-verb, re-mem-ber it now, We all can do good if we try.
