

Weep, Zion, Weep

Christian Latrobe & John Worthington

Mainzer Gesangbuch, 1628

♩=105

1. Weep, Zi - on, weep, in death's deep sleep Your king His head has bow-èd;
2. In strains of woe our songs shall flow; What love is here dis - play-èd;
3. Yet, O re - joi - ce with heart and voice, Soon will He rise most glor - ious;

Clos-èd are those lips, whence late Truth and mer - cy flow - èd.
See God's dear and on - ly Son To a tomb con - vey - èd.
And at the right hand of God Seat Him-self vic - tor - ious.
