

What Good Can Come?

Susan Helen Peterson, 1998

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1898

♩ = 95

1. What good can come from faith a - lone? A man in need must deeds be
2. You can't have faith a - part from deeds, And each good deed from faith pro-
3. Our fa - ther A - bra - ham was named A right - eous man who had no
4. To Ra - hab, though a pros - ti - tute, God did full right - eous - ness im-
5. Lord, may I put my faith to work; May I do good and ne - ver shown. To say, "God bless, keep warm, well fed"—What good is that? Your faith is

- ceeds. Be - lief in God is not e - nough; Ev - en the de - mons do that blame, Be - cause he of - fered up his son; His faith and act - ions worked as
- pute. For she gave lod - ging to the spies And hid them from pur - su - ers' shirk. And may I ne'er be heard to say, "My faith is all I need to-

Refrain

dead!
much.
one.
eyes.
- day."

For faith a - lone is dead and vain; With-out good works, there is no gain. For faith must prove it - self by deeds, And faith by works is made com - plete.

