

What, Never Thirst Again?

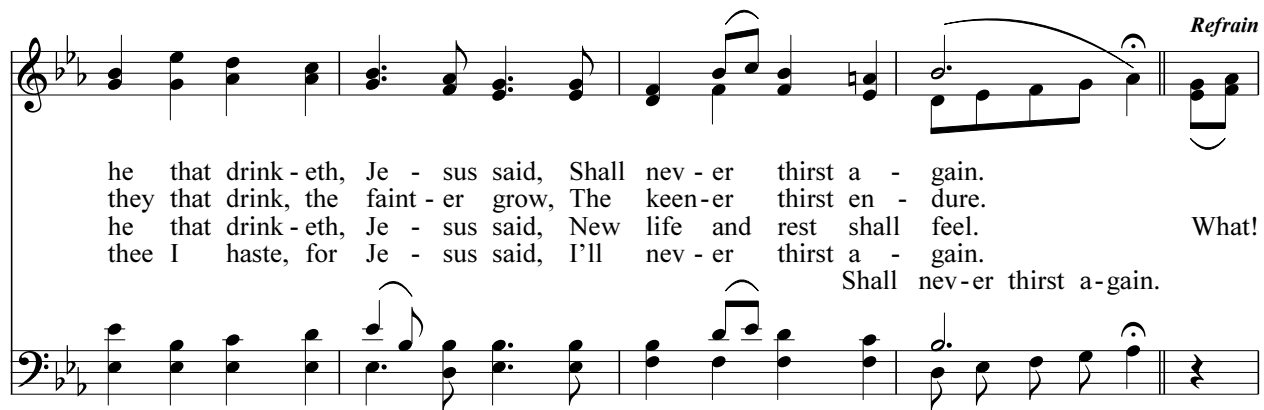

May Agnew Stephens, 1903

May Agnew Stephens

$\text{♩} = 105$

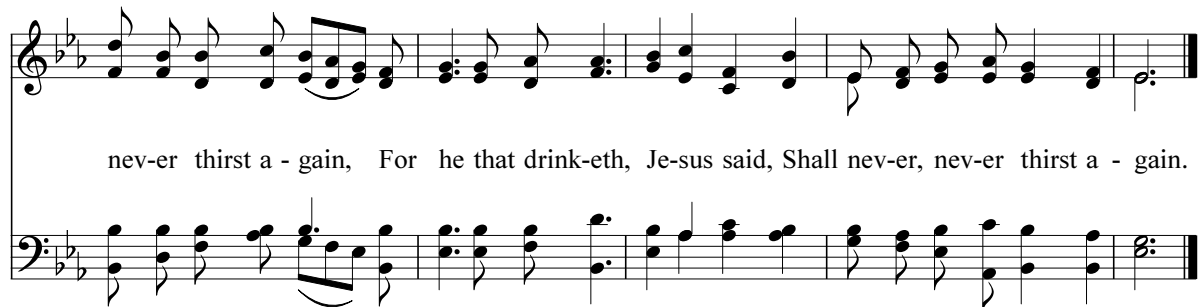

1. There flows from Cal - va - ry a stream For ev - ery sin - ner's pain, And
2. Earth's fount - ains fair but mock our souls, Like des - ert phan - toms lure, And
3. This stream from Cal - va - ry still flows, To bless and cleanse and heal, And
4. Oh, bless - ed stream of pure de - light! Oh, balm for ev - ery pain! To he that drink - eth, Je - sus said, Shall nev - er thirst a - gain.

they that drink, the faint - er grow, The keen - er thirst en - dure.
he that drink - eth, Je - sus said, New life and rest shall feel. What!
thee I haste, for Je - sus said, I'll nev - er thirst a - gain.
Shall nev - er thirst a - gain.

nev - er thirst a - gain? No, nev - er thirst a - gain; What! nev - er thirst a - gain? No, nev - er thirst a - gain, For he that drink - eth, Je - sus said, Shall nev - er, nev - er thirst a - gain.