

What Will It Be?

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1909

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=90

1. If to - day, a - mid the storms of life that wild - ly beat a - round us, We the
 2. If His love so free - ly shed a - broad can fill our hearts with glo - ry, If the
 3. If our faith in Him can fill our hearts with joy to o - ver - flow - ing, And the
 4. If when those we love are tak - en from us we can still a - dore Him, And to rain - bow of our bless - ed Lord can see, And re - joice to hear Him call - ing, as when sweet - est song of earth is: "Come to Me"; If such bless - ing it af - fords us just to Lord, un - seen, to us so dear can be; If we love Him while in tears and pain for Him in that dark hour for com - fort flee; As we clasp their hands on yon - der shore, to first the Shep - herd found us, When we stand in His pre - sence, what will it be?

 tell the pre - cious sto - ry, When we stand in His pre - sence, what will it be? What will it be?
 har - vest we are sow - ing, When we stand in His pre - sence, what will it be?
 cast our crowns be - fore Him, When we stand in His pre - sence, what will it be?

What will it be? With the Lord to reign thro' all e - ter - ni - ty! On that bliss - ful shore, saved for - ev - er - more, As we stand in His pre - sence, what will it be?