

What Would We Do Without the Clouds?

Alfred Henry Ackley, 1922

Alfred Henry Ackley

♩ = 100

1. God is good, He sends the rain; For His glo - ry, we should not com-plain;
2. Ver - dant mea - dows, fruits and flowers, Ga - ther beau-ty from the fall-ing showers;
3. Cloud-less sky makes bar - ren land; Parched and thirst-y is the des-ert sand;

What He sends is al - ways best, Storm-y clouds and all the rest.
Clouds are sail - boats from a - bove, La - den with the gifts of love.
So would life be bar - ren, too, If there were no clouds for you.

Refrain

What would we do with - out the clouds? The clouds bring rain,

Scat-ter-ing showers of bless-ing o - ver hill and plain, Bring-ing to us the har-vest of the gold-en grain; What would we do with-out the clouds? The clouds bring rain.
