

When the Bridegroom Calleth

G. M. Bills, 1899

Matthew Lindsay McPhail

♩=100

1. When the Bride-groom call-eth from the skies— For His jew-els white and
2. When the Bride-groom call-eth for His bride, And the pure His pal-ace
3. When the Bride-groom call-eth from their toil, All who hold His name most
4. When the Bride-groom call-eth from re- pose, Those who rest from ho-ly
5. When the Bride-groom sounds the fi- nal call, And the scroll shall be unfair; At the bliss-ful crown-ing of the wise, Who will be in- vit - ed there?

Refrain

throng; There while count-less ag - es sweet-ly glide, She will sing re - demp - tion's song.
dear; Who with care have filled their lamps with oil, And a - wait His com - ing near. All the strife; When re - wards for ser - vice He bes - tows, Who will wear a crown of life? All the
- rolled, When the vic - tors cross the jas - per sea, Who will tread the streets of gold?

wise will be in - vit - ed, When He call - eth to the wise will be in- vit - ed, be in - vit - ed to the crown - ing, When He call - eth to the crown - ing, to the crown - ing; All the wise will be in - vit - ed, To the crown - ing of the pure; All the wise will be in - vit - ed, all the wise will be in - vit - ed, To the feast of the Lamb.

roy - al mar - riage sup - per of the Lamb.