

When the Bridegroom Cometh

John Millard Harris, 1907

John Millard Harris

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. When the Bride-groom com-eth for His own by and by, Will your soul be rea-dy for that
2. When the Bride-groom com-eth and His voice you shall hear, Will your heart be joy-ful or be
3. When the Bride-groom com-eth then we all must ap - pear, 'Round His throne e - ter-nal and our home on high, Will your lamp be burn - ing and your robes be white, Will you filled with fear? Will you glad - ly meet Him in the clouds so fair? Or will sen - tence hear; Will you hear His wel - come to e - ter - nal light, Or, "De-

Refrain
en - ter with Him thro' the gates of light? Are you rea - dy, for the sin and sor - row drive thee to des - pair? to are you rea - dy?
- part, ye curs - èd, in - to end - less night?"

great judg - ment day? Are you rea - dy, with your sins washed a - way? Should He are you rea - dy?

come in the morn - ing, Or at mid - night with - out warn - ing, Are you rea - dy for the great judg - ment day?