

When the Clouds Have Passed Away

Marion Clyde, 1914

John Leonard Hawkins

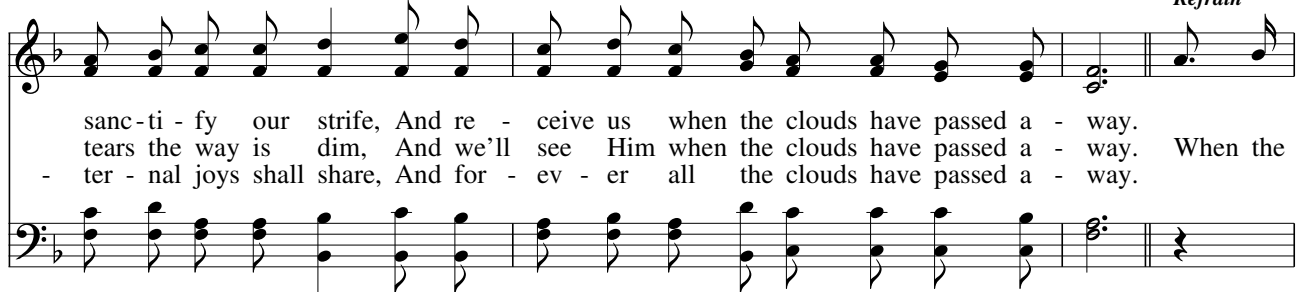

♩ = 90

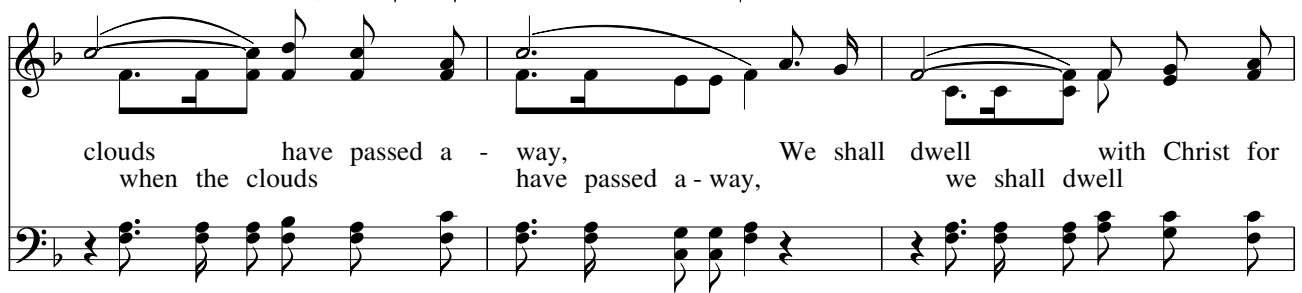

1. As we dai - ly jour - ney on - ward, What - so - e'r our lot in life, Clouds of
2. Je - sus knows that on - ly sun - shine Can - not draw us close to Him, For we
3. O the bright - ness of the morn - ing! O the bliss be - yond com - pare! When ac - sin and sor - row fill us with dis - may; But if we will trust in Je - sus, He will are so strange - ly weak and prone to stray; But we learn by faith to fol - low, When with

- cept - ed we shall stand in white ar - ray, Know - ing that with Christ, our Sav - ior, We e -

Refrain
sanc - ti - fy our strife, And re - ceive us when the clouds have passed a - way.
tears the way is dim, And we'll see Him when the clouds have passed a - way. When the
- ter - nal joys shall share, And for - ev - er all the clouds have passed a - way.

clouds have passed a - way, We shall dwell with Christ for when the clouds have passed a - way, we shall dwell aye, Shar - ing in e - ter - nal bright - ness With re - deemed ones round the throne, When for ev - er - more the clouds have passed a - way.