

When the King Shall Come

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1896

Ira David Sankey

♩=107

1. Oh, the wear-y night is wan-ing, And the clouds are roll - ing by; See, the
2. When the ran - somed of Je - ho - vah, From the East and from the West, Shall re-
3. May He find us, when He com-eth, Faith-ful watch - ers, day and night, At our long ex - spect - ed morn - ing Now is dawn - ing in the sky; When from

- turn with joy and glad - ness, To re - ceive the prom - ised rest— Then shall roy - al post of du - ty, With our ar - mor shin - ing bright; May our Zi - on's loft - y mount-ain We shall hear the watch-men cry, And re - joic-ing we shall ev - ery tribe and na - tion Out of ev - ery land be blessed, And re - joic-ing they shall lamps be trimmed and burn - ing With a clear and stea - dy light, That re - joic-ing we may ga-ther When the King shall come.

ga-ther When the King shall come. O Zi-on! O Zi-on! Great will be Thy tri-umph When the ga-ther When the King shall come.

King shall come; O Zi-on! O Zi-on! Thou shalt be ex - alt-ed When the King shall come.

