

When the Night Shades Are Falling

Mrs. Maude B. Jacobs, 1924

Mrs. Maude B. Jacobs

♩ = 93

1. When the night shades gently are fall - ing, And the lights soft - ly glow in the
2. What - ev - er the task that is giv - en, I will faith - ful - ly la - bor
3. And when my day here is end - ed, And the twi - light of life I've sky, Then I think of the home ov - er yon - der, And it seems to be so near on; Con - tent - ed if, when it is fin - ished, The Fa - ther shall say, "Well won, I will face toward home in the ev - ening, And wait for the lights to

Refrain

by.
done." O the glo - ry a - wait - ing in the home - land, When our day's work here is come.

done! We will be safe home with the Fa - ther, And no sor - row shall ev - er come.