

When We Use Our Talents

E. D. Elliott, 1909

William Edie Marks

J=95

1. O the great-est joy is found a - long the way, And the heart is hap - py,
2. Some may have a voice to speak a cheer-ing word, Let the Gos - pel news o'er
3. Some may have a will - ing hand to lend and aid, Help-ing those who by their
4. Let us then be up and do - ing all the while, Help-ing one an - o - ther sing - ing all the day, For the Lord with rich-est bless-ing doth re - pay, When we all the world be heard, O - ther souls to bet - ter liv - ing can be stirred, When we bur - dens are dis-mayed, Rich-ly will the lit - tle ef - forts be re - paid, When we meet the dai - ly trial, For some wear-y soul with hope will bright-ly smile, When we use our tal - ents for the Mas - ter! O the joy that ser - vice for the Sav - ior brings, use our tal - ents for the Mas - ter!

Refrain

use our tal - ents for the Mas - ter!
use our tal - ents for the Mas - ter!

How the heart re - joic - ing at its du - ty sings! In some o - ther heart the joy-bell sweet-ly rings, When we use our tal - ents for the Mas - ter!