

When Will He Come?

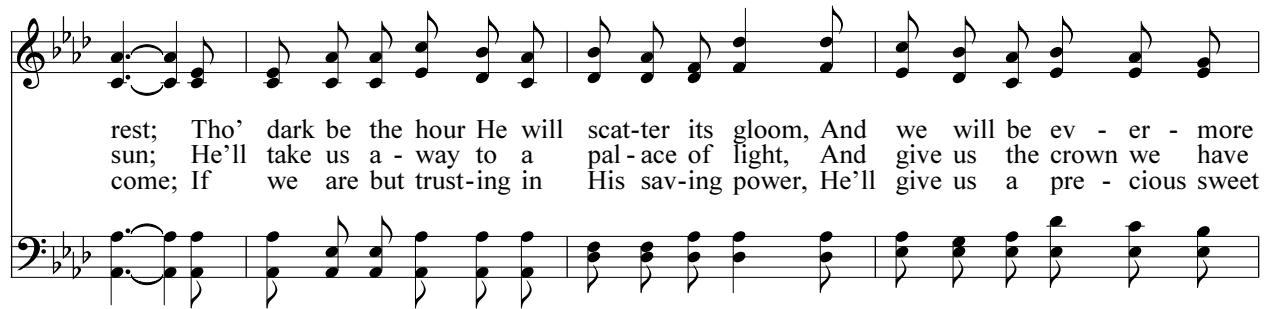

John McPherson, 1888

John McPherson

$\text{♩} = 90$

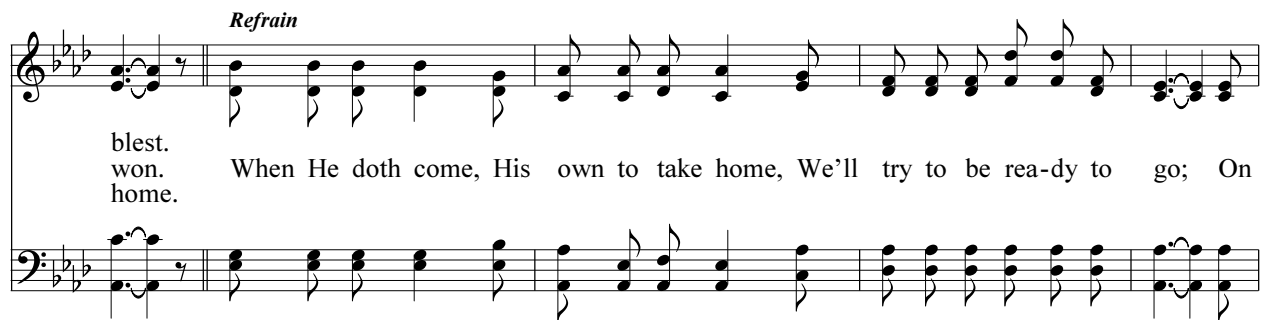

1. It may be at mid - night when Je - sus will come, To take us a - way to our
2. It may be at noon-day when all is so bright, His bright-ness will out - shine the
3. At morn-ing or noon or at night's dis-mal hour, It mat - ters not when He doth rest; Tho' dark be the hour He will scat-ter its gloom, And we will be ev - er - more sun; He'll take us a - way to a pal - ace of light, And give us the crown we have come; If we are but trust-ing in His sav-ing power, He'll give us a pre - cious sweet

Refrain

blest.
won.
home. When He doth come, His own to take home, We'll try to be rea-dy to go; On pin-ions of light, He'll scat-ter earth's night, And wash our robes whit-er than snow.