

Who Shall Wear Them?

Henry Hogg, 1881

Samuel Boltz Ellenberger

♩ = 100

1. Who shall win them, who shall wear them? Crowns im - mor - tal, gold - en,
2. Shall we, Lord, who faint and fal - ter, Droop and doubt, dis - mayed and
3. Shall we, ev - er ris - ing high - er, Praise, and bless - ing, and sal -
4. Draw us, Je - sus, near and near - er, Ev - er af - ter Thee as - glor - ious? Reap their rip - ened sheaves and bear them To the har - vest home vic - daunt-ed? Shall we round that gold - en al - tar Join the song by el - ders

- va - tion, On the sea of glass and fi - re, Fall in ho - ly a - do -
- cend - ing, Let our love grow strong - er, dear - er, Up - ward to its per - fect

- tor - ious? Who shall gain the star - ry prize, Crowned and throned in par - a - chant-ed? Find with kings and priests a place In the rap - ture of Thy
- ra - tion? Swell the song, till then un - known, Cast our crowns be - fore the end - ing; Lift us, then, in - to the light, Let us walk with Thee in

Refrain

- dise?
face? Who shall wear a crown vic - tor - ious, In that throne. We may wear a crown vic - tor - ious, white.

land of light all glor-ious? Who shall gain the star-ry prize,
In that land of light all glor-ious; We may gain the star - ry prize,

Crowned and throned in par-a - dise?