

Who's on the Lord's Side?

Sophia Taylor Griswold, 1870

Philip Paul Bliss

$\text{♩} = 103$

1. We're march-ing to Ca - naan, with ban - ner and song, We're sol - diers en - list - ed to
2. The sword may be bur - nished, the ar - mor be bright, For Sa - tan ap - pears as an
3. Who is there a - mong us yet un - der the rod, Who knows not the par - don - ing
4. Oh, heed not the sor - row, the pain and the wrong, For soon shall our sigh - ing be fight 'gainst the wrong; But, lest in the con - flict our strength should di - vide, We an - gel of light; Yet dark - ly the bo - som may treach - er - y hide, While mer - cy of God? Oh, bring to Him hum - bly the heart in its pride; Oh, changed in - to song; So, bear - ing the cross of our co - ve - nant Guide, We'll ask, "Who a - mong us is on the Lord's side?" lips are pro - fess - ing, "I'm on the Lord's side." haste, while He's wait - ing and seek the Lord's side. Oh, who is there a-mong us, the shout, as we tri - umph, "I'm on the Lord's side."

true and the tried, Who'll stand by His col-ors— who's on the Lord's side? Oh, who is there a-mong us, the true and the tried, Who'll stand by His col-ors— who's on the Lord's side?

