

Win the One Next to You

Charles H. Forsythe, 1920

Charles H. Forsythe

J=100

1. If you would work for the Mas - ter to - day, Win the one next to you;
2. Have you looked o - ver the great har - vest field, Seek-ing for work to do?
3. Close to your door may be some-one in sin, Tell him the sto - ry true.
4. You may not go to a far hea-then land, Or to a coun-try new;

If you would show some poor wand'rer the way Oh, win the one next to you.
Has-ten, go forth, reap the gold - en yield, And win the one next to you.
Of Him Who died that poor soul to win, Oh, win the one next to you.
But in your home for the Mas - ter stand, And win the one next to you.

Refrain

Win the one next to you Win the one next to you; Tell him of Je-sus, the
to you to you

mighty to save, And win the one next to you.
to you
