

With the Sword of the Lord

H. D. Spear, 1909

Fred S. Shepard

$\text{♩} = 102$

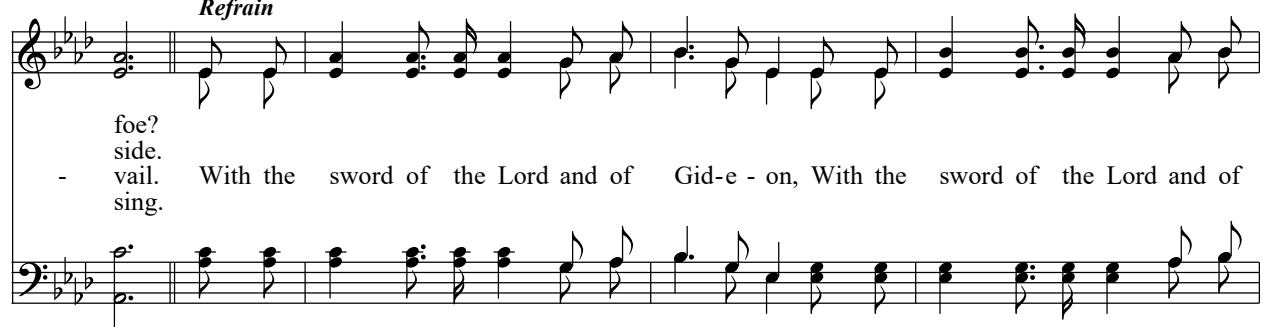

1. See the hosts of ill, camped a - long the hill And with - in the vale be-
2. O how great and strong are the hosts of wrong Clad in all their pomp and
3. Sa - tan strong may be, but will sure - ly flee If we fal - ter not nor 4. For - ward, then, we'll go a - nd meet the foe In the strength of Christ, our

- low! See their bold ar - ray! shall we win the day, As we march a - gainst the pride! But we need not fear, when their ranks draw near, For the Lord is on our fail; For the cause of right and of God we fight, And we must at last pre-king; When the day is done, and the fight is won, Then the vic - tor's song we'll foe?

Refrain

side.
- vail. With the sword of the Lord and of Gid-e - on, With the sword of the Lord and of sing.

Gid-e - on, With the sword of the Lord and of Gid-e-on, Smite the en-e-my till he flee.