

A Wonderful Friend

Gordon Edgar Hooker, 1922

Gordon Edgar Hooker

♩ = 115

1. I have a friend, oh, a won-der-ful friend, He is all in all to me;
2. I have a friend, oh, a won-der-ful friend, And He walks with me each day;
3. I have a friend, oh, a won-der-ful friend, With-out Him what would I do?

Pa - tient and sweet, and so ten - der and kind, So lov - ing and good is He.
Guard-ing my steps lest per - chance I should fall— Be tempt-ed to go a - stray.
In time of sor - row, when tears dim the eye, He then is so faithful and true;

When I was lost in dark - ness and sin, With-out a hope in the world, To Oh, it is sweet to thus know my Lord— Un - der His care I a - bide; There,
Or when temp - ta - tion comes like a flood— Al - most o'er - whelmed by the fight: I rit.

Cal - va - ry's mount-ain went Je - sus for me, To bring me safe home to the fold.
no - thing can harm me, I'm kept by His power— Each step of the way He's my guide.
look up to Je - sus, His stand-ard is raised, And with Him I walk in the light.