$\text{♩} = 92$

1. When you see the morn - ing light in yon - der east - ern sky,
2. When the blaz - ing noon - day sun makes ev - ery task seem hard,
3. When the day is o - ver, and the sun sets in the west,

You must then re - mem - ber God is ev - er reigning on high,
Be an ear - nest, faith - ful soul, keep work - ing for your Lord,
When you take a lit - tle while in so - li - tude to rest,

And the light of day is giv'n that you His work may do,
Fear - ing nei - ther heat nor cold, when by God's Spir - it led,
Ne'er for - get that you be - long to God, a - sleep, a - wake,

Out in His vine - yard where work - ers are bu - sy, The morn - ing calls to you.
Al - ways un - daunt - ed, for love of your Mas - ter, Keep forg - ing right a - head.
Work - ing or rest - ing, what - ev - er you do, Must be done for Je - sus' sake.

Refrain

Al - ways re - mem - ber God has work for you; Grace He will give for the work that you must do; O what an hon - or, called to work for God,

Do - ing just the work once done by Christ your Lord.
