Good Night and Good Morning

Lizzie DeArmond, circa 1922
Homer Alvan Rodeheaver

1. When comes to the weary a blessed release, When we shall be soon, through His wonderful love, We'll praise Him Who called us His

2. When fadeth the day and dark shadows draw nigh, With Christ close at hand, it is not death to die; He'll wipe every tear, roll away every care; We'll say "good night" here, but "good morning" up there. Good earth we must bear, We'll say "good night" here, but "good morning" up there. Good

3. When home lights we see shining brightly above, Where heaven to share, We'll say "good night" here, but "good morning" up there. Good morning up there where Christ is the light, Good morning up there where cometh no night; When we step from this earth to God's Heaven so fair, We'll say "good night" here but "good morning" up there.

Refrain
- Good morning up there where Christ is the light, Good morning up there where cometh no night; When we step from this earth to God's Heaven so fair, We'll say "good night" here but "good morning" up there.
