

Grace Is Free

Emma Mansfield Johnston, 1888

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 110

1. There's no - thing like the old, old sto - ry, Grace is free, grace is free! Which
2. There's on - ly hope in trust - ing Je - sus, Grace is free, grace is free! From 3. From age to age the theme is tell - ing, Grace is free, grace is free! From saints and mar - tyrs tell in glo - ry, Grace is free, grace is free! It brought them thro' the sin that doomed, He died to free us, Grace is free, grace is free! Who would not tell the shore to shore the strains are swell - ing, Grace is free, grace is free! And when that time shall flood and flame, By it they fought and o - ver - came, And now they cry thro' His dear name, sto - ry sweet Of love so won - drous, so com - plete, And fall in rap - ture at His feet, cease to be, And faith is crowned with vic - to - ry, 'Twill sound thro' all e - ter - ni - ty,

Refrain

Grace is free, grace is free!
Grace is free, grace is free! There's no - thing like the old, old sto - ry, Grace is free,
Grace is free, grace is free!

grace is free! Which saints and mar - tyrs tell in glo - ry, Grace is free, grace is free!