

How Shall We Answer Terror's Cry?

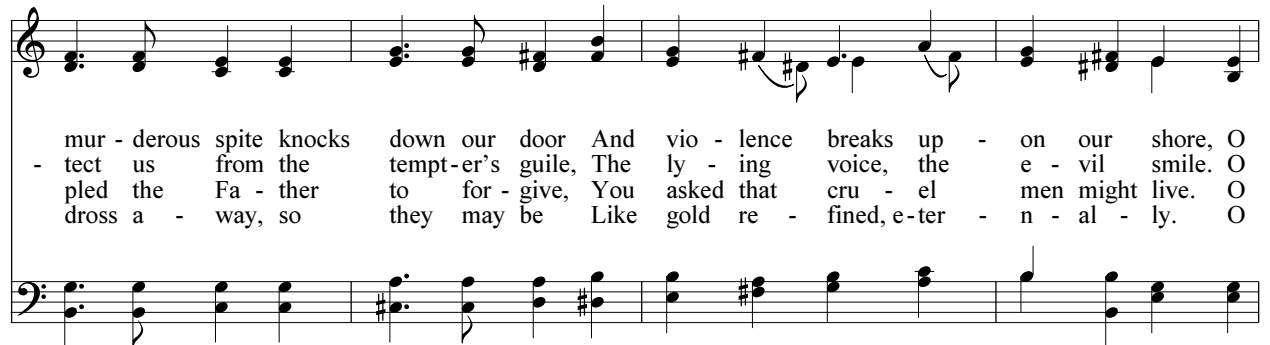

Richard W. Adams, 2001

John Bacchus Dykes, 1860

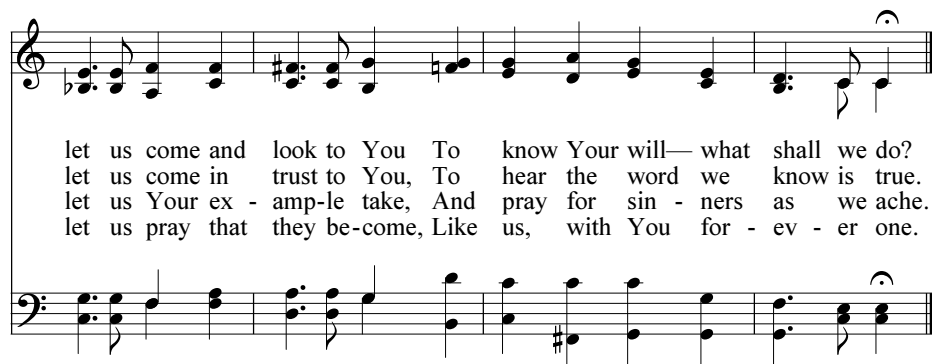

$\text{♩} = 108$

1. How shall we an - swer ter - ror's cry, The cun - ning blade, the flam - ing sky? When
2. When Sa - tan whis - pers, "Hate your foe, Now take your ven - geance— draw the bow," Pro -
3. When ex - e - cu - tioners hung You high You turned Your prayer up to the sky, And
4. We pray that You their hearts will turn; And light a ho - ly fire to burn Their mur - derous spite knocks down our door And vio - lence breaks up - on our shore, O

- tect us from the tempt - er's guile, The ly - ing voice, the e - vil smile. O pled the Fa - ther to for - give, You asked that cru - el men might live. O dross a - way, so they may be Like gold re - fined, e - ter - n - al - ly. O let us come and look to You To know Your will— what shall we do?

let us come in trust to You, To hear the word we know is true.
let us Your ex - amp - le take, And pray for sin - ners as we ache.
let us pray that they be - come, Like us, with You for - ev - er one.