

I Expect to Hear the Savior Call My Name

Arthur Willis Spooner, 1906

Arthur Willis Spooner

♩=93

1. When the trump of God shall usher in The awful judgment day, I expect to hear the Savior call my name;
2. When the skies shall roll together, and The stars all disappear, I expect to hear the Savior call my name;
3. O how sweet will be the music when, Before the blood-washed throng, I shall hear the blessed Savior call my name;

- expect to hear the Savior call my name; For I'm trusting in the promises, His
- expect to hear the Savior call my name; He will disappoint me never, and My hear the blessed Savior call my name; "Come, ye blessed," this His welcome, "To the call my name;

Refrain
Word my constant stay, O I'm sure I'll hear the Savior call my name. soul shall know no fear, For I'm sure I'll hear the Savior call my name. Glo-ry, glo-ry hal-le-home prepared for you"; I'll be glad to hear the Savior call my name.

- lu-jah! I expect to hear the Savior call my name; Glo-ry, glo-ry hal-le - lu-jah! I ex-
call my name;

- expect to hear the Savior call my name.