1. When darkening shadow 'round me falls, And light and hope seem gone, There is one thought my heart upholds; It is, I'm not alone.

2. His eye can pierce the darkest cloud, His arm all danger stay; He waits for neither look nor word, Our troubles to allay. No, never alone, Jesus' followers be; He's ever near, why should we fear? Our

3. When sorrows come with crushing blow, O'er my defenseless head; I tremble not, for well I know Who by my side doth tread. No, not alone, Can guide and hope is He.

4. So, cheerfully I'll travel on Through life's dark, thorny way; I fear no ill, I'm not alone While Jesus is my stay. No, not a lone, - Can
