I Tell Him All

Andrew Carswell Fergus Ferguson, 1894

1. I tell Him all; it is so sweet
To lay my burden at His feet,
My trust He'll not betray;
I know He hears my prayer in song,
Refrain

2. Amid earth's storms and gloom and strife,
When secret trials seem to wait,
He knows He faint ed 'neath the cross,
And cheers tho' tem pests roll.
I tell him all—sin, grief, desire,
He'll not my trust betray;
He'll stay by me thro' cloud.

3. How blest to know He'll guide and keep,
As shepherds guard the helpless sheep,
In tones both soft and loud;
And tho' Christ sometimes pierce the life
Like thorns within the soul,
Jesus then sees my
