

The Judgment Day

Oswald Jeffrey Smith, 1916

Daniel Brink Towner

♩ = 96

1. Are you liv - ing for to - day, With the fu - ture far a - way, Know - ing
2. Have you turned a - way the Light, Sought the dark - ness and the night? Do you
3. Have you lost the sense of sin, Si - lenced con - science's voice with - in, Placed the 4. Is it bet - ter then to sin Than to have His peace with - in? For the not that ere the night Death may come and claim his right? Then, I tread in er - ror's way, And a - void the Sav - ior's way? Oh, bejudg - ment far a - way, Fought the light and shunned the day? You will Sav - ior came to God, Bend - ing low be - neath the rod— Died for bid you stop and think Ere you reach the aw - ful brink, For 'twill then be all too late, To a-

- ware! be - ware, I pray, And the voice of God o - bey, For to turn a - way the Light Is to meet in sin or grace, Meet the Sav - ior face to face; 'Tis for you the ques-tion when? You must guilt - y sin - ners lost, Paid the debt at fear - ful cost; Oh, then come! no long - er wait, Ere for-

Refrain

- void your cer - tain fate!
dwell in end - less night! Are you rea - dy for the judg - ment day? Are you rea - dy for the judg - ment meet Him now or then.
- ev - er 'tis too late!

day? Have you par - don full and free Through the Sav - ior slain for thee? Are you rea - dy for the judg - ment day?