Life in the Loom

Mary Artemisia Lathbury, 1902  George Coles Stebbins

1. Children of yes-ter-day, heirs of to-mor-row, What are you weav-ing? la-bor and sor-row? Look to your loom a-gain, fast-er and fast-er Fly the great shut-tles pre-

2. Children of yes-ter-day, heirs of to-mor-row, Light-en the labor and sweet-en the sor-row; Now while the shut-tles fly fast-er and fast-er, Up and be do-ing the sor-row; seam-y and dark with de-spair and dis-as-ter, Turn it and lo, the de-

3. Children of yes-ter-day, heirs of to-mor-row, Look at your fabric of la-bor and sor-row? Look to your loom a-gain, fast-er and fast-er Fly the great shut-tles prepared by the Mas-ter. There’s life (There’s life) in the loom! Room for it, room! work with the Mas-ter. He stands (He stands) at the loom! Room for Him, room!

Refrain

There’s life (Theres life) in the loom! Room (room) for it, room! He stands (He stands) at the loom! Room (room) for Him, room! The Lord’s (Thes Lord’s) at the loom! Room (room) for Him, room!

Public Domain
Courtesy of the Cyber Hymnal™