

The Love of God (Keeling)

George P. Keeling, 1897

Barney Elliott Warren

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. The love of God flows deep and wide Thro' Christ who bled for
2. Tho' men have gone in sin so deep That hell would blush and
3. The heart that is so hard in sin That this great love can
4. But tho' your sins be black and deep, And aw - ful dark - ness us and died; Its widen-ing stretch we can - not see, It reach-es far bean - gels weep, Yet, God so loved each guilt - y one He gave for them His nev - er win, Is tru - ly fit for no - thing less Than end - less hell and 'round you creep, Yet, God so loves your guilt - y soul, He'll save you from all

Refrain

- yond the sea.
on - ly Son. Oh love, oh, love, oh, love of God so free; He wretch-ed - ness. Oh, love of God, oh, love of God, pure and free; hell's con-trol.

proved His love for you and me Up - on dark Cal - va - ry.