1. While there's a lit - tle seed for me to sow, While there's a lit - tle field for
2. While there is good that ev - en I may preach, While there's a soul that ev - en
3. While there's a lit - tle song that I can sing, While there's a lit - tle joy that me to mow, Let me a - wake and sow - ing be, Let me a - broad and mow - ing be, For,

I may teach, I can an ear - nest preach - er be, A true and loy - al teach - er be, And I can bring, O let me ev - er sing - ing be, And joy and com - fort bring - ing be, And oh, these days that go so quick - ly by, Tell of the reap - ing of e - ter - ni - ty.

ev - ery - where sal - va - tion's joys de - clare, As I have free - ly gained to free - ly share.
so ful - fill - ing well my Lord's be - hest, In Him shall ev - ery wor - thy deed be blest.

Let me a sow - er be, let me a mow - er be— And to our great com - mand - er
Let me a preach - er be, let me a teach - er be— And to our great com - mand - er Then let me ev - er sing, joy to some heart to bring, And to our great com - mand - er loy - al be and true; Oh, let me a sow - er be, let me a mow - er be, loy - al be and true; O let me a preach - er be, let me a teach - er be, loy - al be and true; Oh then let me ev - er sing, joy to some heart to bring,

Rea-dy to do what-ev - er I may find to do.
 Rea-dy to do what-ev - er I may find to do.
 Rea-dy to do what-ev - er I may find to do.
