

Star in the East

John Marshall Lowrie (1817-1867)

William Augustine Ogden, 1870

♩ = 85

1. Lo! the star in the East! o - ver Beth - le - hem's plain, It
 2. Lo! the star in the East! we may gaze on it now; Be
 3. Lo! the star in the East! let us fol - low it still, No 4. Lo! the star in the East! yet with far wid - er rays, Shall shines as a guide to the place Where the wear - y, worn trav - eler his pil - grims, with it for our guide; Th - e les - son of Beth - le - hem, pil - grim it e'er led a - stray; Let us bow at His feet, let us its glor - ious shin - ing go forth; A - nd ear - nest - ly plead, God would hopes may at - tain, And wor - ship that In - fant of Days. While still ev - er new, The man - ger, and cross where He died. We may stu - dy His will, And ev - er His pre - cepts o - bey. What hast - en the day, When His know - ledge shall fill all the earth. We would forth from their trea - sures, frank - in - cense and gold, And the read, we may learn, from His birth to His grave, The trea - sures have we to pre - sent to our king, As an lift up our prayers, we would strength - en our hands, Would cost - li - est spic - es they bring. For in their dis - tant land it had teach - ings of peace and of love; For this is the king who is off - er - ing fit - ting and true? Our hearts and our - selves, bles - sèd send out our means all a - broad, Till the glor - i - ous Gos - pel is

Refrain
ff

long been fore - told, The birth of that glo - ri - ous king. might - y to save; His grace and His love we may prove. Let the Je - sus, we bring, Ac - cept us, and form us a - new.
 heard in all lands, And the world is con - vert - ed to God.

glad world re-joyce! Let the an-gel-ic bands Their an-thems tri-umph-ant-ly sing! To God be the glo-ry! Sound forth, all ye lands, The com-ing of Je-sus our king.