

Sweetly the Birds Are Singing

Anzientia Igene Perry Chapman, 1885

Leopold Damrosch, 1885

♩ = 108

1. Sweet-ly the birds are sing - ing At East-er dawn; Sweet-ly the bells are
 2. Birds! cease ye not your sing - ing At East-er dawn; Bells! be ye ev - er
 3. Buds! ye soon will be flow - ers, Cher - ry and white; Snow storms will change to
 4. Ea - st - er buds were grow - ing Ag - es a - go; East - er lil - ies were ring - ing On East-er morn. And the words that they say On East - er day Are ring - ing On East-er morn. In the spring of the year, When East - er is here, Sing show - ers, Dark - ness to light; With the wak - ening of spring, Oh! sweet-ly sing "Lo! blow - ing By wa - ter's flow. A - ll na - ture was glad, No crea - ture was sad, For

"Christ the Lord is ris - en."
 "Christ the Lord is ris - en."
 Christ the Lord is ris - en."
 Christ the Lord was ris - en.