

Thou Art Coming

Franklin Edson Belden, 1906

John Millard Harris

♩=90

1. Thou art com - ing, my Be - lov - èd, Thou art com - ing once a - gain; Not a
2. We are wait - ing, we are watch - ing, For the com - ing of Thy feet, With our
3. Bless - èd hope that makes the de - sert Now to blos - som as the rose; In the man of tears and sor - rows, But a king of kings to reign; And to hearts a - flame with glo - ry, Wait - ing at the mer - cy seat; And tho' rough and rug - ged plac - es, Still our hearts doth find re - pose, In the rule in re - gal splen - dor Where such sor - row pierced Thy heart, Can it winds and waves chas - tise us, While on life's tem - pest - uous sea, We would hope that we shall see Thee, And shall lean up - on Thy breast, And then be, Thou best Be - lov - èd, Com - ing, ne - ver to de - part? sure - ly sink and per - ish But for hope of see - ing Thee. We are wai - ting, we are reign with Thee for - ev - er In the land of per - fect rest. We are wait - ing, We are wait - ing,

Refrain

watch - ing, We are wai - ting, we are watch - ing, For the com - ing of the Lord;
We are watc - ing,

wai - ting, we are watch - ing, For the com - ing of the Lord.

