

The Triumphs of Faith

Henry Barnett Beegle (1818-1895)

William James Kirkpatrick

♩=104

1. There is a faith sub - lime and grand, Of saints the crown and glo - ry, And
2. Faith led to A - bel's sac - ri - fice, To No - ah's pres - er - va - tion; It
3. By faith their right - eous deeds were wrought, And king - doms were sub - ject - ed; This
4. This faith has feared no storms of wrath The hosts of sin could wak - en, Has thou - sands now at God's right hand, Pro - claim its won - drous sto - ry; A shone in E - noch's ho - ly life, And wrought a grand trans - la - tion; It faith great strength from weak - ness brought, And from the sword pro - tect - ed; The braved the sword and smiled at death, Tho' hat - ed and for - sak - en; Has faith that ev - er works by love, A liv - ing flame that burn - eth, That keeps in view the crowned with glo - ry A - bram's brow, Helped Ja - cob at Pe - ni - el; Its worth the He - brew rag - ing li - ons held in chains, The power of fire sus - pend - ed; It brought the dead to wak - ened songs in pris - on walls, All Sa - tan's darts de - fy - ing, Un - waver - ing stood in crown a - bove, The faith that o - ver - com - eth. child - ren knew, And Dan - iel in his tri - al. life a - gain, And al - ien ar - mies rend - ed. O for a faith like saints of old, As told in sac - red judg - ment halls, And filled with joy the dy - ing.

Refrain

sto - ry! 'Twill make us true, and pure, and bold, And take us home to glo - ry.