

When the Dead Shall Rise

James Wells, 1924

Vernon Madison Nipper

$\text{♩} = 92$

1. On some glad and glor - ious morn - ing We shall
2. Oh, what weep - ing and what wail - ing, Of the
3. Be ye rea - dy for that morn - ing, When ye hear the sol - emn warn - ing, Hear a trum - pet ring - ing loud - ly in the wick - ed ones now fail - ing At the judg - ment bar to en - ter par - a - hear that clar - ion warn - ing, When the Son of Man ap - pear - eth in the skies; An - gel bands with torch - es flam - ing, Will the

- dise; Oh, what shout - ing and re - joic - ing, Of re - skies; Lest in dark - ness ev - er - last - ing, You the judg - ment be pro - claim - ing, On that last great day When all the dead shall rise.

- deemed ones, prais - es voic - ing, In that last great day When all the dead shall rise.
Lord shall then be cast - ing, On that last great day When all the dead shall rise.

Refrain

On that judg-ment day, On that last great day, On that judg-ment day, When the trum - pet sounds, And all the dead shall rise; Will you hear the dread - ful sen - tence, "Oh, de - part, I know you not," rit. "I know you not," Or

"Dwell for-ev-er-more in par-a - dise"?

in par-a - dise.