

Will You Come to Jesus?

John Marchant Whyte, 1889

John Marchant Whyte

♩=103

1. Oh, why thus stand with re - luct - ant feet Just on the verge of the
2. The Spir - it strives, and yet there you stand In sight of bliss and the
3. Your loved ones gone to the oth - er shore With un - seen hands seem to
4. The touch of death is up - on your frame, The mar - ble slab soon will rest so sweet? While God in - vites, and your steps will greet, Will you come to Je-sus now?

glor - y - land; Re - treat is death in the sink - ing sand, Will you come to Je-sus now?
beck-on o'er; Their voic-es hushed, yet they still im - plore, Will you come to Je-sus now?
bear your name; Lest you should suf - fer e - ter - nal shame, Will you come to Je-sus now?

Refrain

Will you come to Je - sus? Will you come to Will you come to Je - sus, will you come? Will you come to Je - sus? Will you come to Je - sus? Will you come to Je-sus now?

Je-sus, will you come? Will you come to Je-sus, will you come?