

Wilt Thou Blameless Be?

Keith L. Brooks, 1920

Keith L. Brooks

♩=105

1. Have you yet sought a soul to win, Out of the paths of death and sin—
2. Have you to loved ones prov-en true? Could they in judg-ment point to you?
3. Are you im - prov - ing ev - ery day, Tell - ing to sin - ners Je - sus' way—
4. Do you for - get the love of Christ, How that for thee He sac - ri - ficed?

Liv - ing each day in Je - sus' will, Ear - nest-ly warn-ing friends of ill.
Haste, then, for night may soon come on, Find - ing your dear ones ev - er gone.
Just by an act, a word, a smile, Show - ing out Je - sus all the while?
Go now, I pray thee, be for Him Mes - sen - gers tire - less, souls to win.

Refrain ad lib. ritard.

Will thy soul blame-less be— None lost point-ing to thee?
